Islam teaches that angels are heavenly, immortal beings, God's first creation.

According to the Quran, human was formed from clay, but angels were made out of light.

They are God’s messengers, the channels through which we can become aware of his laws and his purpose in our lives. They are God’s servants and they can take on many without sin and so they can enter into God’s divine presence, and they can also communicate with humans.

Muslims believe that, although angels are invisible, they exist everywhere, through the whole universe. They are never far away and they are always in contact with humans especially when someone prays or thinks about God. They have no physical bodies but the Quran describes them as having wings and they are always described as male.

The Quran says,

“Whoever is an enemy to Gabriel- it is (none but) he who has brought the Quran down upon your heart, (Omuhammad), by permission of God”, confirming that which was before it and as guidance and good tiding for the believers. Quran 2:27
